

Deneese Greenwell: Asian Aid Ambassador Profile

Alstonville, NSW - Far North Coast of NSW

Semi-retired registered nurse/mid-wife

Mother of four and grandmother of eleven

For Deneese and her husband Eric hope is “what gets you out of bed in the morning because you have something to live and reach for.” And they have played a part in giving this gift of hope to others since 1988 when they first started sponsoring children with Asian Aid.

“Once I stopped full-time work, I wanted to find a way to do more to support the mission of Asian Aid,” says Deneese. “A trip to India and Nepal in 2010 helped me to see firsthand the life-changing work of Asian Aid. I saw that the support we give in Australia really does make a difference in the lives of children and disadvantaged people.” The trip inspired Deneese to tell more people about the agency and she has been faithfully promoting the work of Asian Aid in over six towns in the Far North Coast of NSW.

Her advice to other Asian Aid supporters who may want to do more to help is simple. “Let Matthew 25:40 - ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me’ - be your inspiration”.

Thank you Deneese for your amazing support of Asian Aid.